“ I was saddened by the news of Rondle's death. Sad for his family because I know they are close to him & his earthly presence will be missed. Certainly not sad for Rondle because he has reached home! And family, you have not "lost" him, he is forevermore found! May God be close to all of you! With love.

“ Saturday our club lost a member that has been a friend and mentor to all. Rondle Lee was a generous man with his time and knowledge and was always generous with his property. He has given the club members so many hours of pleasure up hunting on his property. I will always remember Rondle climbing up on that big dozer, smiling away and waving his cap, ready to blaze a new hunting area through the trees for us. I know the dozer you're driving now will always start and never have any equipment failure. RIP good friend.

“ One of my fondest memories was Rondle showing me the boundaries of his property. He was around 82 so that made me around 46. Up and down hills and up and down hills again and every step of the way was a new story. Then all of the sudden he was gone, slid down a bank about 15-20 feet down. First thing I thought was I broke Rondle but after a couple of seconds he dusted himself off and climbed back up where I was and kept on walking a couple of hours later we finished and he said do you like what I showed you. And also him climbing up on that bulldozer. That was cool too.

*I'm so sorry for your loss Alma and family

“ So sad to hear that Rondle has left but so happy to know he is now home with the Lord. He was one of a kind , knowing him was to see the definition of loving life. Always curious and generous and so full of energy ! He was everything a Grandfather should be. Alma you made his life so full of true happiness. Godspeed Rondle

“ *Alma and family: Donnie and I were so saddened to hear of Rondle's passing. The days seem to be flying by. We are so glad Donnie got to talk with him the last time we were in church in Stanton. He was such a kind, gentle person - you all know how he was! He will be missed but we are so happy he does not have to suffer anymore! Praying for all of you!! We love you.
