

Roy Haddix

December 13, 1950 - May 23, 2026

Roy Haddix, 75, of Stanton, Kentucky, husband of Rebecca Haddix, passed away on May 23, 2026, at Centerpoint Health, Winchester surrounded by his loving family. Roy was born on December 13, 1950, in Jackson, Kentucky to the late Chester and Gladys Overbee Haddix. He was a proud Marine veteran and throughout his life worked as a truck driver, police officer, horse trader, and many other occupations. Roy was truly a “jack of all trades” and was known for his hard work, strength, and his favorite title, “Pappy.”

Above all else, Roy loved his family deeply. He was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, son, and brother. He was preceded in death by his sister, Carol Haddix; his brothers, James Haddix and John Haddix; his son, Chester Haddix; his grandson, Zachary Couch; and his sons-in-law, William “Bill” Delacy and James Kirk. Roy is survived by his wife of 46 years, Rebecca Haddix; his daughters, Mandy (the late William) Delacy, Brandy (the late James) Kirk, Jessica Haddix, and Magan Pelfrey; grandchildren, Morgan (Ian) Adams, Tristin Delacy, Chloe Pelfrey, Madalyn (Shelby) Barnett, Zoey Pelfrey, Aiden Pelfrey, McKinley Kirk, Marti Kirk, Riley Janel, Gunner Couch, and Bear Faulkner; and great-grandchildren, Levi Adams, Evelyn Poston, Avery Bexley, Carter Norris, Dean Adams, and Clayton Norris. He is also survived by his sister, Hazel (Kevin) Crabtree; his brothers, Bobby (Tina) Haddix and Clarence (Vickie) Haddix; along with many extended family members and friends. Roy’s grandchildren and great-grandchildren brought him great joy, and he cherished all the time he spent with each of them. Services Wednesday, May 27, 2:00PM Wells Funeral Home by Bro. Rob Rice. Visitation Wednesday 12-2pm at the funeral home. Honorary pallbearers serving, Ian Adams, Shelby Barnett, Aiden Pelfrey, Tristin Delacy, Stephen Norris, Landen Rynolds, Jacob Brandenburg, and Josh Johnson. The family greatly appreciates all prayers, love, and support during this time.
