“ Russell and I were close as kids he and his father Raymond Banks were big part of our lives . Breaks my heart to hear this. May he rest in Paradise with his father

“ Russell spent a lot of time with our family after we discovered that his dad and my husband were cousins, even had the same birthday. He was with us the night Raymond passed. It was the hardest thing telling a boy or 10 that his dad wasn't coming home. I lived Russell so much. His infectious laughter. He once told his day to marry me. That I could get rid of my husband Gary and keep them.

“ I hated to hear this. I wish we were around you more growing up. Last time I got to see you was in 1996 when you came to see Leon in Danville and ya all came to see us in Harrodsburg. I will miss you always. You were my family and I love you cousin. May you forever and always Rest In Peace and fly high with the angels. You will always be missed.

“ Russel.. I hope heaven is as beautiful as we all picture it. I hope you can finally feel free and be the happy Russel you sought to be no matter the circumstances. I only met you twice but your stories always made Billy and I laugh, he is beyond devastated to have lost one of his best buddies. Billy and I are both so grateful to have spent time with you the afternoon& evening after you got out.. the stories told we will hold on to, the YouTube video you asked me to play will forever hold a spot in our hearts as your song! You were so happy singing along, we had such a good time just being us.. billy and I were so happy that you said you were going to check in to rehab the next day.. Just know we will miss you Russel, I hope you can finally feel peace and rest easy brother. Fly high Russ. We are so very sorry for his families loss of an incredible hard working individual, you will be in our prayers through this extremely hard time.
