“ Sadden to here about the passing of my friend Sanders Barnes. I got to know Sanders when I was a patient at Fountain Circle Nursing Facility in Winchester. He was such a nice man who loved the Lord. He was my buddy and was always wanting me to sing “Coat of Many Colors”. I will always think of him when I sing or hear that song. He will be missed.

“ Sanders was my uncle. I was his brother, Noble's, daughter, Rita. Never remember him not singing some sort of hymnal no matter where he was. The last time I saw Uncle Sanders was when I, along with my cousin Venica drove him, my Aunt Ann, and Aunt Iona to Lake City, Florida to see his daughter, Teresa, who was in the hospital there before her passing. Randy, Uncle Sanders, son was also there.

Some of my best memories of my uncle Sanders 1) He always called me deetlebug. One time while with my cousins Randy and Teresa I fell into a moss covered pond, I thought I was drowning (very young) Teresa ran and got uncle Sanders. He was on the toilet taking care of business and came running down to the pond pulling his pants up. 3) He was the slowest driver I have ever seen. 4) He was not a good cook but a great baker 5) once when mom was out town he came to stay with me, my dinners all consisted of Boil a bag entrees over bread. I would love to have Teresa back also to laugh about all of his habits. One thing for sure Uncle Sanders loved god, and boy some of the churches he has taken me too. Great Memories that no one can take away from me. I know you are in good hands Uncle Sanders. Love forever. Timmy and Randy Hugs to you both.
