So sorry for your loss. I remember when we was growing up she was always out and about and at the store working side by side with your dad. I'd go in there all the time to get things for dad.

“ I remember walking out of one of the those old time photo places in Gatlinburg and hearing my name... and there was Sandy and family heading in... we stood in the parking lot and talked for a long time that day.

She was a wonderful person and will be missed by all!

One beautiful soul gained her wings today. She truly earned them by her everyday life. I met her 53 years ago. Our friendship was instantaneous and remained sound and blessed the whole period of time. Our families grew up together and friendships still remain. I will miss out bumping into each other in random places, our five minute phone conversations, catching up with each other at the Thanksgiving Dinners, occasional Bingos, just hanging with Mama on her trips in from Texas, going to the parts house and picking up supplies, going to Women's Club meetings etc. We had each other's back regardless Good bye sweet friend until we meet again. 🌹💔
