“ Sara was my Sunday School teacher when my dad, James Chamberlain, pastored the Church of God on Franklin Avenue. She was the BEST! After Sunday night service, she took me and my friends, Debra and Joyce, to Jerry's. We thought we were the cat's meow! Whenever we had a Sunday School "contest" (who could bring the most visitors over a period of a few weeks).... Sara ALWAYS won. I remember one year telling my dad, "you should just ask Sara what kind of prize she would like". Her goal was to spread the love of Jesus to everyone! After moving away, I lost contact with Sara. But a few years ago (thanks to FaceBook), I was able to reconnect. I had the great pleasure of calling her and letting her know that I loved her and the impact she had on me. We spoke periodically and she often commented on my FB posts.... many times telling me she loved me. Sara was a very special lady in every way...and I know she is REJOICING with her Heavenly Father. Thank you, Sara, for loving me.
