“ My deepest condolences to David & the family! I wish I had known Sheila better, but I lived too far away for too long. I do know she was a very sweet lady, and she loved the Lord! Who could ask for more?! I loved that special lady, and I know David & all her family & friends will miss her terribly! She impacted so many lives, and she has earned her wings. Jesus is waiting for her with open arms, saying, “Well done, my child,” I pray God will wrap David and your children in His loving arms and bless and comfort them. You will be sorely missed, Cousin!

“ I've dreaded seeing this sweet lady's name in an obituary. As far back as I can remember, Sheila has always been there for me. By marrying my oldest brother, she became my sister in law, but she has also been one of my dearest friends. My life may have turned out considerably different, had it not been for Sheila taking me to church so often as a child. In my teens, she often mailed handwritten letters, and even sent stamps, just so I could reply! She ordered a 2 year subscription of Guideposts magazine for me, and never knew how much that meant to me. I could talk to her about anything and I knew I could cry on her shoulder anytime. I've private messaged Sheila on facebook more often than anyone else I know. I'm going to miss her so very much!! - I'm beyond thankful to have had her in my life,- and I do know we will meet again, but I was just not quite ready to say "see you later".
