

Stacey Todd Salleng

March 10, 1975 - November 8, 2024

Stacey Todd Salleng, 49, husband of Tanya Barnett Salleng, passed away Friday, November 8, 2024 at Saint Joseph Mt. Sterling. He was born March 10, 1975 in Morgantown, Kentucky to the late Charles Lewis Salleng and Betty Ann Salleng. Stacey loved his family fiercely and always enjoyed being in church. A true mountain man, being outside and in nature was his favorite place to be, whether it being sitting on his porch or fishing. You could always count on Guns N' Roses playing in his favorite Bronco. Stacey's classic style was his shorts, tank top, and his flip flops. He was an avid Goodwill shopper, always up for a great deal. Survivors include, wife, Tanya Salleng; mother, Betty Salleng; sons, Austin Salleng, Harley Salleng, and Mylan Salsman; step-daughters, Bethany Tracy, Kortney Tracy, Katelyn Tracy, Megan Tracy, and Tabitha Tracy; daughter, Sarah Salleng; brothers, Eddie Salleng, Dean Salleng, and Andy Salleng; and sister, Michelle Elkins. Services Tuesday, November 12, 2:00PM by Bro. Donald Wayne Hale, Wells Funeral Home. Visitation Sunday and Monday 5-8pm Living Water Church Clay City, 7283 Winchester Road, Clay City, KY 40312. Burial in Resthaven Cemetery with Austin, Harley, Eddie, Randy, Rick, Dean, Shawn, and Andy serving as pallbearers.

“ Stacey was a great guy, in school his wardrobe of choice was T-shirt, shorts and his Redwing Boots. Glad to hear he didn't stray far from his roots and only traded boots for flip-flops. Prayers to all his family as I know he will be missed. Fly high Moose! Class of 93.
