

Timothy Lynn Smyth

February 18, 1966 - October 22, 2021

Timothy L. Smyth, entered this earth on February 18, 1966. He was the son of Joyce Seale and the late “Bubby” Smyth. While he spent most of his years in Clay City, KY, he spent several years traveling overseas during his service in the United States Marine Corps. He was the very proud father of a son, Tanner (Amanda) Smyth; a daughter, Abby Smyth; and he recently became a grandfather to Arlo Smyth. He was a man with a great deal of love for his family, nature, and cats (most notably his favorite cat, “Juicy Jaws”). He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Dena, as well as his father and grandparents. He is survived by his mother, Joyce Seale of Clay City, KY; a brother, Tommy (Andrea) Smyth of Winchester, KY; a sister, Bobbi Caudill of Clay City, KY and several half-siblings, nieces, nephews, and cousins. Services Thursday, October 28, 1:00PM Davis and Davis Funeral Home, Stanton. Visitation Thursday 11am-1pm. Military honors following the service.

HE

“ *Unfortunately, most of my memories of you were from my childhood/early teen years.
(I can vividly remember that tarantula that Tanner had lost in the house scaring us all to death, always making $5 to clean tanners room 😊)
You were always so kind to me, sometimes not realizing how badly I needed that kindness. When daddy passed, speaking with you kept me from a total collapse. You literally saved me with your kindness. I wish we had gotten together sooner, my kids would have loved you... But there's always time, always something else to have to get done.
You were such a warm, charismatic person. A living, doting father. Full of jokes and laughter.
It's not fair... I'm not sure why I'm rolling this out like you're going to read it, but just in case... I love you!*
