“ I can't count the times she carted me around in high school from place to place as our group went from friend's house to friend's house, from Abner's motel back to Clay City, and then home. She was always so kind to me. She listened to us when we were teens, giving advice and a calm word when we were all so high strung. Great memories of a great lady.

“ So sorry to hear this. Many happy memories of your mom.
She helped Bobby get a job at Sylvania many years ago.
Prayers
